Ultima Thule CATALOGUE INFO

Read me! - Important mail-order gumpf

Hello!

Last listing of the year, and not so many new arrivals this time, just a few titles on Bureau B, and mostly restocks of items on that label, Can, Tangle Edge and Flame Dream titles for those that missed out on them previously, and a few other odd items.

Important news: 1. The UK digital phone switchover means we've had to merge our home phone and business internet accounts. Thus, from 19 November we will have a new phone number and email addresses. So, please make your orders before then, or try our mobile: 07386 455 224 or Gmail: xylem777@gmail.com. 2. Due to new EU legislation which now includes €5 of extra fees and paying VAT upfront, we can now only sell to the EU via online IOSS registered systems like Discogs or Bandcamp.

And lastly, seasons greeting to all!

cheers - Alan & Steve.

2026 update: After trying to restrict our open hours at Ultima Thule to Wednesday-Friday with the aim of us having more free time to do other things - that really didn't work so well... 1. Due to the unpredictability of the weather. 2. Often being busy on Mondays due to orders over the weekend. 3. Visitors on Saturdays, etc. So, we are now abandoning advertising any opening/business hours altogether, and pretty much going with the flow as to what suits us best. However, for this to work we will have to insist on no unannounced visits - only visits by prior arrangement please! Whilst our mail-order may not be quite as speedy as it was, we will still get everything despatched as soon as possible.
